AMERICAN NATIONAL RED CROSS, a
Congressional Charter Corporation,

Defendant.

Case No. 4:19-cv-2855-HSG

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective

Case No.: 4:19-cv-2855-HSG - STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of information or items under this Order.

2.2 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).

2.3 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as their support staff).

2.4 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

2.5 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures, responses to discovery in this matter or informally exchanged between the parties to facilitate settlement negotiations.

2.6 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this action.

2.7 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this action. House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

2.8 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

2.9 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have appeared in this action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of that party.

2.10 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their support staffs).

2.11 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery Material in this action.

2.12 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

2.13 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as "CONFIDENTIAL."

2.14 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material. However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who obtained the 1 information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party. Any use of 2 Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

3 4. DURATION

4 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this
5 Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order
6 otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and 7 defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion 8 and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, including the 9 time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

10 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

11 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or 12 Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to 13 limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The 14 Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or 15 oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents, 16 items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within 17 the ambit of this Order.

18 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown 19 to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily 20 encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 21 other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

22 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated for 23 protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties 24 that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

25 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order 26 (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered,
27 Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so 28

1 designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

2 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

3 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but 4 excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party
5 affix the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that contains protected material. If only a portion
6 or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 7 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

8 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection
9 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it
10 would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the material 11 made available for inspection shall be deemed “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has 12 identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which 13 documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the 14 specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL” legend to each page 15 that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 16 protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making 17 appropriate markings in the margins).

18 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the 19 Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other 20 proceeding, all protected testimony. When it is impractical to identify separately each portion of 21 testimony that is entitled to protection and it appears that substantial portions of the testimony may 22 qualify for protection, the Designating Party may invoke on the record (before the deposition, 23 hearing, or other proceeding is concluded) a right to have up to 21 days following receipt of the 24 official transcript to identify the specific portions of the testimony as to which protection is sought
25 and to specify the level of protection being asserted. Only those portions of the testimony that are 26 appropriately designated for protection within the 21 days shall be covered by the provisions of this 27 Order. Until the passage of the 21 days following receipt of the official transcript, the entire 28

transcript shall be treated as “CONFIDENTIAL” pursuant to this Order.

(c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party’s confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the

1 circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen
2 designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it
3 has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the Designating Party is 4 unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely manner.

5 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
6 intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under Civil 7 Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) within 21 days of the 8 initial notice of challenge or within 14 days of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer process
9 will not resolve their dispute, whichever is earlier. Each such motion must be accompanied by a
10 competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer
11 requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph. Failure by the Designating Party to make such a 12 motion including the required declaration within 21 days (or 14 days, if applicable) shall 13 automatically waive the confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the 14 Challenging Party may file a motion challenging a confidentiality designation at any time if there is 15 good cause for doing so, including a challenge to the designation of a deposition transcript or any 16 portions thereof. Any motion brought pursuant to this provision must be accompanied by a
17 competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer
18 requirements imposed by the preceding paragraph.

19 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating
20 Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose 21 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions.
22 Unless the Designating Party has waived the confidentiality designation by failing to file a motion to 23 retain confidentiality as described above, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question
24 the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the court 25 rules on the challenge.

26 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

27 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or 28

1 produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting,
2 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to 3 the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has 4 been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL 5 DISPOSITION).

6 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a 7 secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

8 7.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by 9 the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any 10 information or item designated “CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

11 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as employees
12 of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for 13 this litigation;

14 (b) the officers, directors, employees, or independent contractors (including House 15 Counsel) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;

16 (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is 17 reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement 18 to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

19 (d) the court and its personnel;

20 (e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and 21 Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have 22 signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

23 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably 24 necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A),
25 unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed
26 deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately 27 bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this 28

1 Stipulated Protective Order.

2 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or 3 other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

4 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
5 LITIGATION

6 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
7 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party 8 must:

9 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a 10 copy of the subpoena or court order;

11 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the 12 other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this 13 Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and 14 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the 15 Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

16 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena
17 or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL”
18 before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has 19 obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and 20 expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these 21 provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to 22 disobey a lawful directive from another court.

23 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS
24 LITIGATION

25 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in this 26 action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information produced by Non-Parties in 27 connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief provided by this Order.

1 Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional 2 protections.

3 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a Non-
4 Party's confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement with the 5 Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's confidential information, then the Party shall:

6 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some or 7 all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;

8 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated Protective Order in 9 this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific description of the 10 information requested; and

11 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party.

12 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within 14
13 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the 14 Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely 15 seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or 16 control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by 17 the court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of 18 seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

19 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

20 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected
21 Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order,
22 the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized
23 disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c)
24 inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this 25 Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to 26 Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
MATERIAL

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), the parties agree to and the Court orders protection of privileged and otherwise protected Documents against claims of waiver (including as against third parties and in other federal and state proceedings) as follows:

(a) The disclosure or production of Documents by a Producing Party subject to a legally recognized claim of privilege, including without limitation the attorney-client privilege and the work-product doctrine, to a Receiving Party, shall in no way constitute the voluntary disclosure of such Document.

(b) The inadvertent disclosure or production of any Document this action shall not result in the waiver of any privilege, evidentiary protection or other protection associated with such Document as to the Receiving Party or any third parties, and shall not result in any waiver, including subject matter waiver, of any kind.

(c) If, during the course of this litigation, a party determines that any Document produced by another party is or may reasonably be subject to a legally recognizable privilege or evidentiary protection ("Protected Document"):

(i) the Receiving Party shall: (A) refrain from reading the Protected Document any more closely than is necessary to ascertain that it is privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure; (B) immediately notify the Producing Party in writing that it has discovered Documents believed to be privileged or protected; (C) specifically identify the Protected Documents by Bates number range or hash value, and, (D) within ten (10) days of discovery by the Receiving Party, return, sequester, or destroy all copies of such Protected Documents, along with any notes, abstracts or compilations of the content thereof. To the extent that a Protected Document has been loaded into a litigation review database under the control of the Receiving Party, the Receiving Party shall have all electronic copies of the Protected Document extracted from the database. Where such Protected Documents cannot be destroyed or separated, they shall not be reviewed, disclosed, or otherwise used by the Receiving Party. Notwithstanding, the Receiving Party is under no obligation to search

1 or review the Producing Party's Documents to identify potentially privileged or work product
2 Protected Documents.

3 (ii) If the Producing Party intends to assert a claim of privilege or other protection
4 over Documents identified by the Receiving Party as Protected Documents, the Producing Party will,
5 within ten (10) days of receiving the Receiving Party's written notification described above, inform 6 the Receiving Party of such intention in writing and shall provide the Receiving Party with a log for 7 such Protected Documents that is consistent with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil 8 Procedure, setting forth the basis for the claim of privilege or other protection. In the event that any 9 portion of a Protected Document does not contain privileged or protected information, the Producing 10 Party shall also provide to the Receiving Party a redacted copy of the document that omits the 11 information that the Producing Party believes is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection.

12 (d) If, during the course of this litigation, a party determines it has produced a Protected
13 Document:

14 (i) the Producing Party may notify the Receiving Party of such inadvertent
15 production in writing, and demand the return of such documents. Such notice shall be in writing, 16 however, it may be delivered orally on the record at a deposition, promptly followed up in writing.
17 The Producing Party's written notice will identify the Protected Document inadvertently produced 18 by bates number range or hash value, the privilege or protection claimed, and the basis for the 19 assertion of the privilege and shall provide the Receiving Party with a log for such Protected
20 Documents that is consistent with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, setting
21 forth the basis for the claim of privilege or other protection. In the event that any portion of the 22 Protected Document does not contain privileged or protected information, the Producing Party shall 23 also provide to the Receiving Party a redacted copy of the Document that omits the information that 24 the Producing Party believes is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection.

25 (ii) The Receiving Party must, within ten (10) days of receiving the Producing 26 Party's written notification described above, return, sequester, or destroy the Protected Document
27 and any copies, along with any notes, abstracts or compilations of the content thereof. To the extent 28

1 that a Protected Document has been loaded into a litigation review database under the control of the 2 Receiving Party, the Receiving Party shall have all electronic copies of the Protected Document
3 extracted from the database.

4 (e) To the extent that the information contained in a Protected Document has already 5 been used in or described in other documents generated or maintained by the Receiving Party prior 6 to the date of receipt of written notice by the Producing Party as set forth in paragraphs (c)(ii) and 7 d(i), then the Receiving Party shall sequester such documents until the claim has been resolved. If 8 the Receiving Party disclosed the Protected Document before being notified of its inadvertent 9 production, it must take reasonable steps to retrieve it.

10 (f) The Receiving Party's return, sequestering or destruction of Protected Documents as 11 provided herein will not act as a waiver of the Requesting Party's right to move for the production of 12 the returned, sequestered or destroyed documents on the grounds that the documents are not, in fact,
13 subject to a viable claim of privilege or protection. However, the Receiving Party is prohibited and 14 estopped from arguing that:

15 (i) the disclosure or production of the Protected Documents acts as a waiver of 16 an applicable privilege or evidentiary protection;

17 (ii) the disclosure of the Protected Documents was not inadvertent;

18 (iii) the Producing Party did not take reasonable steps to prevent the disclosure 19 of the Protected Documents; or

20 (iv) the Producing Party failed to take reasonable or timely steps to rectify the 21 error pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B), or otherwise.

22 (g) Either party may submit Protected Documents to the Court under seal for a 23 determination of the claim of privilege or other protection. The Producing Party shall preserve the 24 Protected Documents until such claim is resolved. The Receiving Party may not use the Protected 25 Documents for any purpose absent this Court's Order.

26 (h) Upon a determination by the Court that the Protected Documents are protected by 27 the applicable privilege or evidentiary protection, and if the Protected Documents have been 28

1 sequestered rather than returned or destroyed by the Receiving Party, the Protected Documents
2 shall be returned or destroyed within 10 (ten) days of the Court's order. The Court may also order
3 the identification by the Receiving Party of Protected Documents by search terms or other means.

4 (i) Nothing contained herein is intended to, or shall serve to limit a party's right to 5 conduct a review of documents, data (including electronically stored information) and other 6 information, including without limitation, metadata, for relevance, responsiveness and/or the 7 segregation of privileged and/or protected information before such information is produced to 8 another party.

9 (j) By operation of the parties' agreement and Court Order, the parties are specifically
10 afforded the protections of FRE 502 (d) and (e).

11 12. MISCELLANEOUS

12 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek 13 its modification by the court in the future.

14 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order 15 no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any 16 information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no
17 Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by 18 this Protective Order.

19 12.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a 20 court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the 21 public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected
22 Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal
23 pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant 24 to Civil Local Rule 79-5, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the 25 Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to 26 protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant 27 to Civil Local Rule 79-5(d) is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the information
28

1 in the public record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(e) unless otherwise instructed by the court.

2 12.4 By stipulating to and signing this Protective Order, the Parties agree to be bound by 3 this Protective Order pending its approval and entry by the Court. In the event that the Court
4 modifies this Protective Order, or in the event that the Court enters a different Protective Order,
5 the Parties agree to be bound by this Protective Order until such time as the Court may enter such
6 a different Order. It is the Parties' intent to be bound by the terms of this Protective Order pending
7 its entry so as to allow for immediate production of Protected Materials under the terms herein.

8 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

9 Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, each Receiving 10 Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in 11 this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and 12 any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected 13 Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the 14 Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day
15 deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was 16 returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts,
17 compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material.
18 Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings,
19 motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence,
20 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work
21 product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or 22 constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4
